There are only 8 seats available in the Legl for nomination from Special Interests, Ministers or the Council of these 8 seats are guaranteed to Muhammedans, Indian Christians and Depressed classes if they fail to secure representation thro' general elections or elected from the Asst. The chances are, that the Communities are not likely to come thro' their elections & so in all probability the above seats will be reserved to them. The European Mercantile Assts may have the privilege of 1 seat if they fail to come thro' the Mercantile Interest Constituency. There will be very few seats left for Special or Minority interests. Hence it may not be possible to guarantee a seat for the Communities in the Legl even though they may fail to come thro' the general elections. All that could be done seems to be to recognise the Assts as one representing Minority Communities even for the Legl

This should be seen by the Rep. part R.A. Rep. part to them all to practically this effect. CAG 26/1

MYSORE (South India).

18th February 1924.

Sir,

With reference to your letter D.O. No.1905 dated the 12th instant, I beg to inform you that our above Association has been granted the right of returning a member to the Assembly as representing the minor Jaina Community, without any conditions, as you will see from a copy of the Government Order No.1504 dated 21/1/24, herewith enclosed for your ready reference. Further, in the list of Associations recognised for representation purposes, which has been sent to us with Notification No.1960-82 dated the 16th inst., the Jaina Education Fund Association is mentioned as being unconditionally recognised, unlike the Ayodhyanagarada Sivachar Sangha, for instance, whose claims are said to be considered after the general elections. Having thus no doubt whatever of our having been granted the privilege of returning, we arranged for the election meeting to be held on the 26th instant and addressed you in the matter of the Polling Officer. We have however stopped proceeding further on account of your above communication and I request that you
